OUR 2010 HONOREE

Annika Sorenstam is one of the greatest female golfers and athletes of all-time. Over the course of her dominating career she won 89 tournaments as a professional, including 10 LPGA majors. She won LPGA Player of the Year and the LPGA Money Title eight times over a 14 year career. She was a member of eight Solheim Cup teams, and was AP Female Athlete of the Year from 2003-2005.

The year 2003 was a banner year for Annika. She completed the LPGA career Grand Slam, was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, and played in the PGA TOUR's Bank of America Colonial golf tournament, becoming only the second female to play in a PGA TOUR event.

Annika is one of the most respected golfers in history and transcends the game like few have before. She retired at the top of her game in 2008, and to this day she continues to be a great ambassador for golf, while raising a family and overseeing her acclaimed Annika Academy and other wide ranging business enterprises.

About

THE OUIMET FUND

Founded in 1949, the Ouimet Scholarship Fund provides need based scholarship assistance to young people who work on golf courses in Massachusetts. Since then, the Ouimet Fund has awarded more than $20.5 Million to over 4,600 scholars. Applicants are required to have completed at least two years of service to golf, maintain a high academic standard and demonstrate need. In 2009-2010, the Ouimet Fund awarded $1.325 Million in scholarship aid to 354 young men and women. The Fund is professionally managed and a 501 (c) (3) charitable organization.

The Fund was established to honor Francis Ouimet who is considered the “First American Golf Hero.” Mr. Ouimet won the 1913 U.S. Open at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, where he’d grown up as a caddie. His win was one of the greatest moments in golf history, as it signaled the end of British domination and the birth of the American game.

In 2005, a new generation of fans learned about Mr. Ouimet’s heroics through the release of the Disney movie, The Greatest Game Ever Played.

THE BANQUET

With an average crowd of 1,500, the Ouimet Fund’s Annual Banquet is one of the leading golf dinners in the United States each year. Those in attendance will enjoy a look back at the past recipients as well as hear an uplifting address from the “student speaker,” who is a graduating Ouimet Scholar. The Francis Ouimet Award for Lifelong Contributions to Golf, the evening’s highlight, is one of the most coveted accolades in golf and we look forward to hearing from this year’s recipient, Annika Sorenstam.

In 2008, Annika holed her final shot of her final US Open for an eagle from 200 yards, bringing a climactic end to one of the greatest US Women's Open careers in history.
